REFERENCE LETTER

I am writing to provide a reference for Mr. Benjamin Tan En Zhe, who is doing his internship as a Firmware Engineering Intern within the Global Software Tools & Infrastructure (GSTI) team at Western Digital Kuala Lumpur Center of Excellence.

Throughout his time with us, Benjamin demonstrated strong technical capability, reliability, and professionalism. He adapted quickly to our environment and consistently delivered quality work.

Benjamin's key strengths include:

- Full-stack software development and system design, delivering end-to-end solutions.
- Strong analytical problem-solving and architectural understanding.
- Effective communication and teamwork across engineering groups.

During his internship, Benjamin contributed to our internal analytics platform by:

- Designing key components that automated code-health evaluation and reduced manual reporting.
- Integrating backend logic and data pipelines, demonstrating initiative and maturity.

Benjamin is a motivated individual with solid work ethic and strong potential. I am confident he will be an asset to any engineering organization. Please contact me if further information is required.

Yours sincerely,

Christopher Ramirez
